Library and Information Service (BIS) for Earth System Sciences

BIS for Earth System Sciences is a joint facility of several institutes of the Center for Earth System Research and Sustainability (CEN) of the University of Hamburg and the Max-Planck-Institute for Meteorology (MPI-M).

Our service is offered preferably to students and scientists of the participating institutes. Guests are of course always welcome.

Our Media

Our print and e-media are recorded in the beluga-Catalogue and the Campus-Catalogue of the University. More e-books can be found in an additional special catalogue.

If you do not find the literature you require in our library, please contact the library team for an interlibrary loan.

We offer numerous specialized databases for literature searches and access to a variety of electronic journals. Please search the Electronic Journals Library (EZB).

For individual introductions to library use or literature research, please do not hesitate to contact us at any time.

Use and lending conditions

BIS for Earth System Sciences is a lending library. Exceptions are marked accordingly. The loan period is usually four weeks.

Extensions are possible via email or phone.

No user card of the library system of the University of Hamburg is required to borrow books.

Please bring your student ID card and identity card for first registration.

Mobile phone calls and video chats please only outside the library.

Equipment

- 7 PCs to search in catalogs, databases and electronic journals (with USB ports)
- 1 printer
- reading space with laptop connections
- Copy machine / color scanner (with scan to email)
- group workspace (2x 8-10 people)
- WLAN
- Eduroam
- Ring binding machine

Trainings

To improve your research knowledge in database research or structuring literature inside a literature administration system every semester will be offered special classes. The dates will be announced by a poster.

We are also happy to correct your literature lists for Bachelor's and Master's theses.

Book Swap-Shop

Bring one, two, three and/or take one, two, three or more.

Here you may find books for relaxing in everyday life, for your holidays... Here novels, thrillers and more in German or English are waiting for new readers.
